

Islamic Radicalism: Causes, Ideology and Ways to Face It

PROFESSOR MORDECHAI KEDAR

Bar-Ilan University, Israel
Fluent in Hebrew, English and Arabic

February 10
SLO City/County Library
7-8:30pm

Presented by JCC SLO News Junkies

A special presentation about Islam, Islamic Movements,
gender issues in Islam, Arabic mass media,
popular culture in the Arab world,
state and society in the Arab world.

PROFESSOR MORDECHAI KEDAR

Director of the Center for the Study of the Middle East and Islam
(under formation)
Research Associate at the Begin-Sadat Center for Strategic Studies, Bar-Ilan University, Israel.
Member of the Herzliya Inter-Disciplinary Center, Israel –
Study team: “Facing Radical Islam”
Member of the international board of The Berlin International Center for the Study of Antisemitism (BICSA)
Member of the international board of Canadian Institute for Jewish Research (CIJR)
Columnist
Weekly analysis about the Middle East of the Israeli “Makor Rishon”
Weekly analysis about the Middle East of the Israeli “Yom le-Yom”
Military service: Retired Lieutenant Colonel in the Israel Defense Forces.
Military Intelligence, head of a branch in the hi-tech 8200 unit.
On active duty until 1995.
Public profile: Regular debater Middle Eastern and Jewish issues in Arabic on Al-Jazeera Television Network and on Israel 2 Television.